Office of Commercial Affairs Songkhla Provincial Message

“Songkhla Province” is located on the eastern coast of Thailand since ancient times, there are ancient communities and ancient cities. There are antiques, ancient sites., Traditions, local games, Native art is a cultural heritage and is an important port city where merchants from other cities have sailed to trade since the past. Which can be seen from the name of Songkhla province, presumably distorted from the name “Singla” (read Sing-ha-la) or Singkhon, which came from Persian and Indian merchants who sailed to trade and saw “Koh Nu and Koh Maeo” When looking from a distance, it can be seen as a figure. Two lions crouched down at the entrance to Songkhla. Therefore, the Indians called this city “SingLha”.

Songkhla Province It is an important economic city of the lower South with 3 border checkpoints, namely, “Sadao” customs checkpoint, “Padang Besar” customs checkpoint and “Ban Prakob” customs checkpoint, which are important trade checkpoints and are the transportation centers of The southern region has road, rail, air and water routes, resulting in a large number of businessmen who come to buy and sell products from entrepreneurs in Songkhla.

Ministry of Commerce as an agency with a mission to develop the country’s trade and economy has given importance to policy-driven grassroots economy to aim for communities and localities to have well-being, to be strong using strategy “Production market” and assigned the provincial commerce to act as a provincial salesman. It serves to connect the province’s products to both domestic and international markets in order to generate income for the country and promote local products to the global market (Local to Global).

The Songkhla Provincial Commerce Office has created digital online public relations media or E-Catalog of potential products in Songkhla Province. under activities “Promotion of Public Relations Image for Business Negotiations” Provincial Salesman Team Building Project and Promotion of Thai-Go International Local Identity Products to publicize and promote the product image of Songkhla Province It is a product presentation tool. to create market opportunities for entrepreneurs and Increase the value of inter-provincial and international trade.
